workshop visit-
Halscombe Farm
Workshop, Ide, Devon
28th June at 2pm

Geoffrey Preston is one of the UK's leading architectural sculptors, specialising in decorative plasterwork and in particular the art of stucco. After studying sculpture at Hornsey College of Art he trained as a stonemason and a carver. He was a founding director of two of the country's most respected conservation companies, at the helm of many significant projects including the pioneering restoration of the 18th century hand modelled plasterwork at Uppark House in West Sussex.
