Piccadilly Station is 17 minutes walk from Jurys Inn. Take the main exit and take the metrolink (tram every 10 minute) to the city centre and get off at St Peter's Square. Walk next to the Manchester Central Library and turn left to Oxford Street and take the first on the right (Lower Mosley Street). Keep going for 6 minutes and then turn left for Great Bridgewater Street where you will see the entrance to Jurys Inn.

NB. Tram travel

I have bought a train ticket that states Manchester Stations as the destination. Can I use this on the Metrolink in the city centre?

The ticket must state the destination as Metrolink CTLZ or Metrolink City. Please note that tickets stating Manchester Stns are not valid on Metrolink.

Ask when purchasing your rail ticket for a Metrolink add-on stating your destination. This costs no more, but allows you to travel between Deansgate-Castlefield, Piccadilly and Victoria on Metrolink.

Alternatively, exit at Manchester Piccadilly south-west and at the traffic lights cross the street and go along Fairfield Street. Keep left for about 12 minutes until you see the Palace Theatre and turn right to Oxford Street. Turn left on Chepstow Street and carry on until you reach Great Bridgewater Street where you will see the entrance to Jurys Inn.

Deansgate Station is a 3 minute walk from Jurys Inn. You can travel to Deansgate station on the train from Manchester Piccadilly and Manchester Oxford Road railway stations. From Deansgate go along Peter Street past the front of Manchester Central to the hotel.

Oxford Road Station is a 5 minute walk. Walking out of the main entrance to the station, follow Station Approach to the bottom turning left to Whitworth Street W (B6469). Turn right for Albion Street and take the second on the right which is Great Bridgewater Street where you will see the entrance to Jurys Inn.

Alternatively, take the free metroshuttle service 2 and get off at Manchester Central and continue for Lower Mostley Street (the Bridgewater Hall is on your left) and turn left to Great Bridgewater Street where you will see the entrance to Jurys Inn.
